A CARD.—Mr. Editor: I see by the morning edition of The World, that the public are cautioned by Mr. John W. Bryce, not to believe my statement in regard to Mr. Issac Winston, our Consul at Kingstor, Jamaica, because he thinks I am a colored man. It is true, that I am one-quarter nervo and secording to Mr. Bryce's statement to me, I think he is honored with the same bloed, and I would be very sorry if my character for truth, honesty, and sobriety, stood as law as his in N. warr. It is true, that I was once engaged in the hai-dressing business, when it was a common thing to see Mr. Sryce stager it g about the streets in the same manner that I have seen his friend W., in the streets of Kingston.
